

School of Exploration & Mining

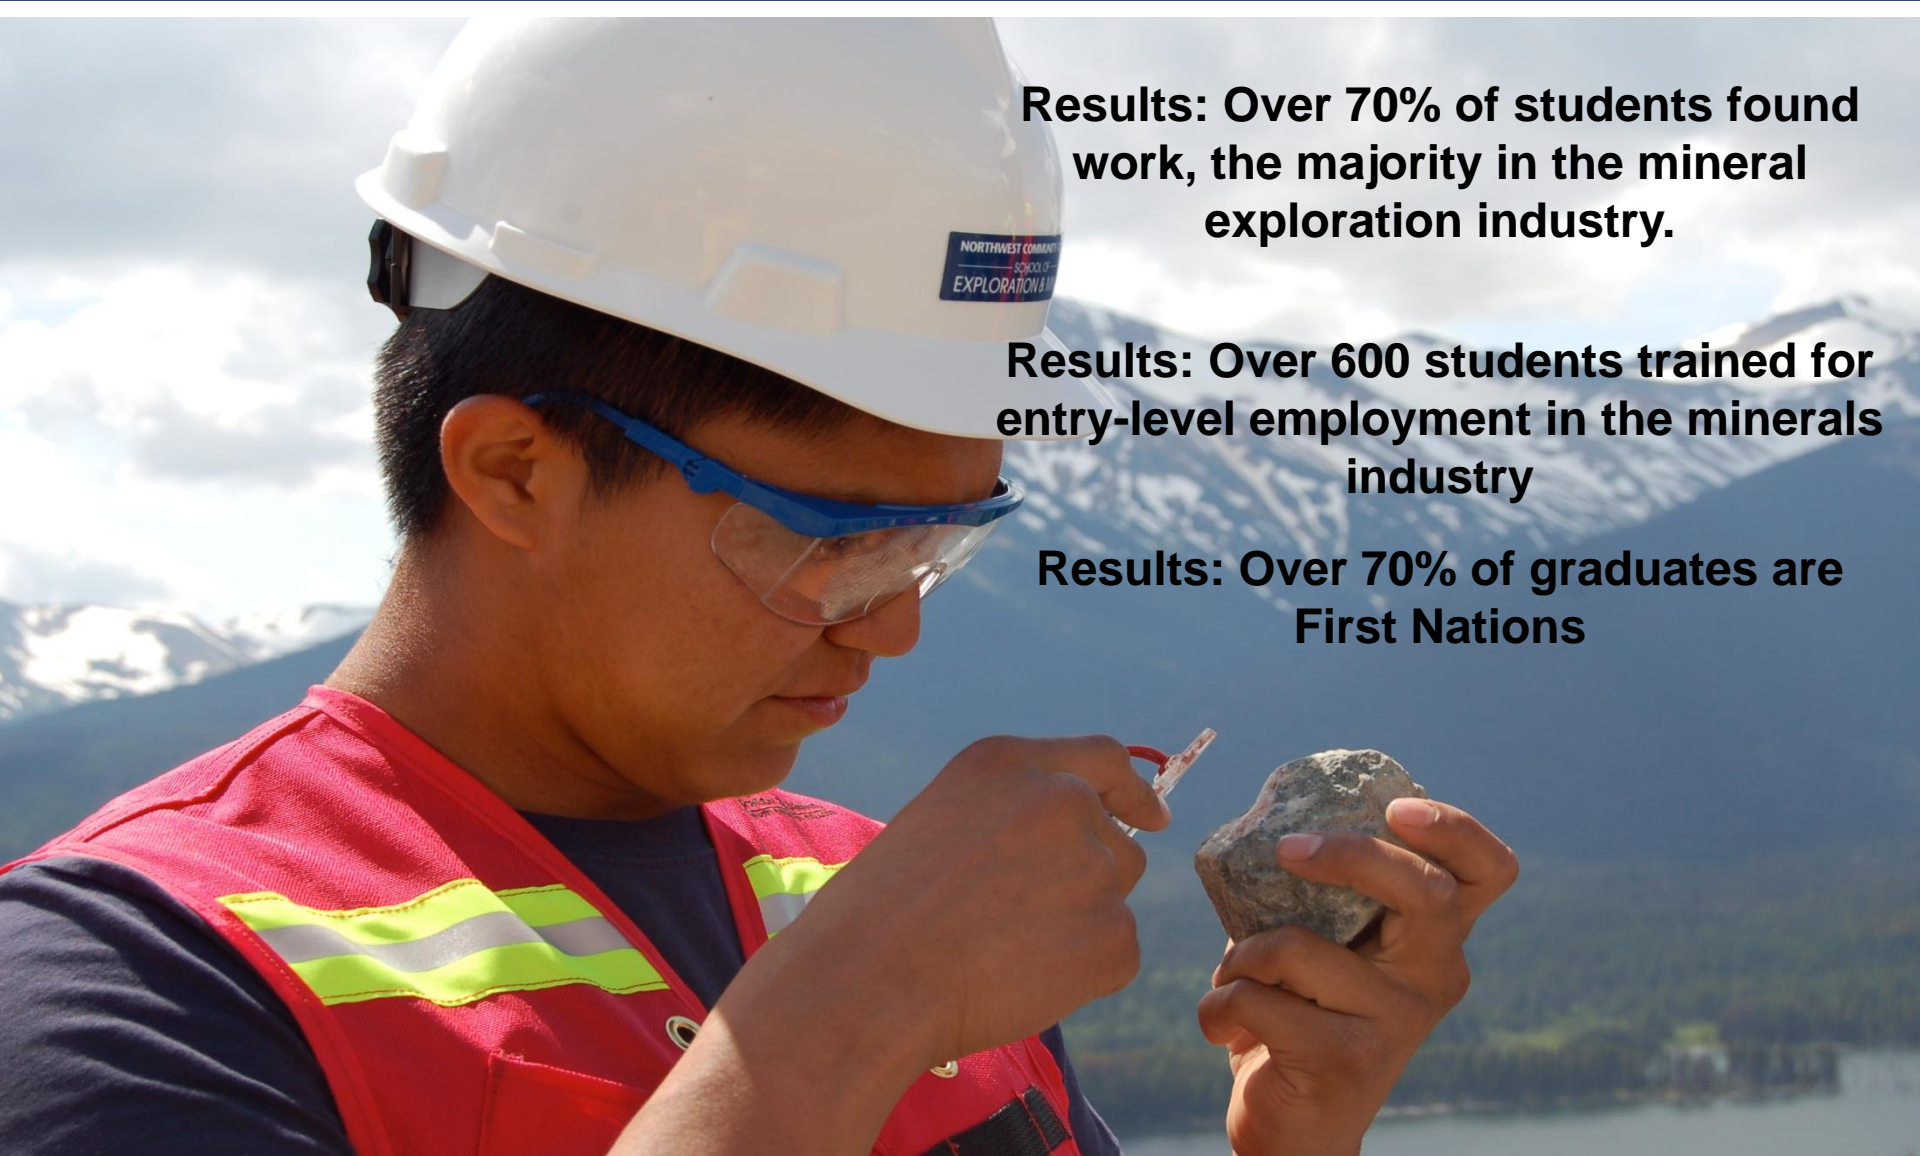

NORTHWEST COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Partnering to Build Capacity for Communities and Industry

Results: Over 70% of students found work, the majority in the mineral exploration industry.

Results: Over 600 students trained for entry-level employment in the minerals industry

Results: Over 70% of graduates are First Nations

School of Exploration and Mining

- Mining Exploration Field Assistant
- Prospector Basic Training
- Environmental Monitor Assistant Program
- Surface Diamond Driller's Helper
- Drill Core Technician
- Camp Management

School of Exploration and Mining

- Applied Earth & Environmental Studies Certificate
- Assoc. Degree – Environmental Geoscience
- Glacial Till Sampling
- Essential Skills (MiHR – Getting Ready to Mine)
- Manifold GIS Introductory Course
- Metal Leaching Acid Rock Drainage

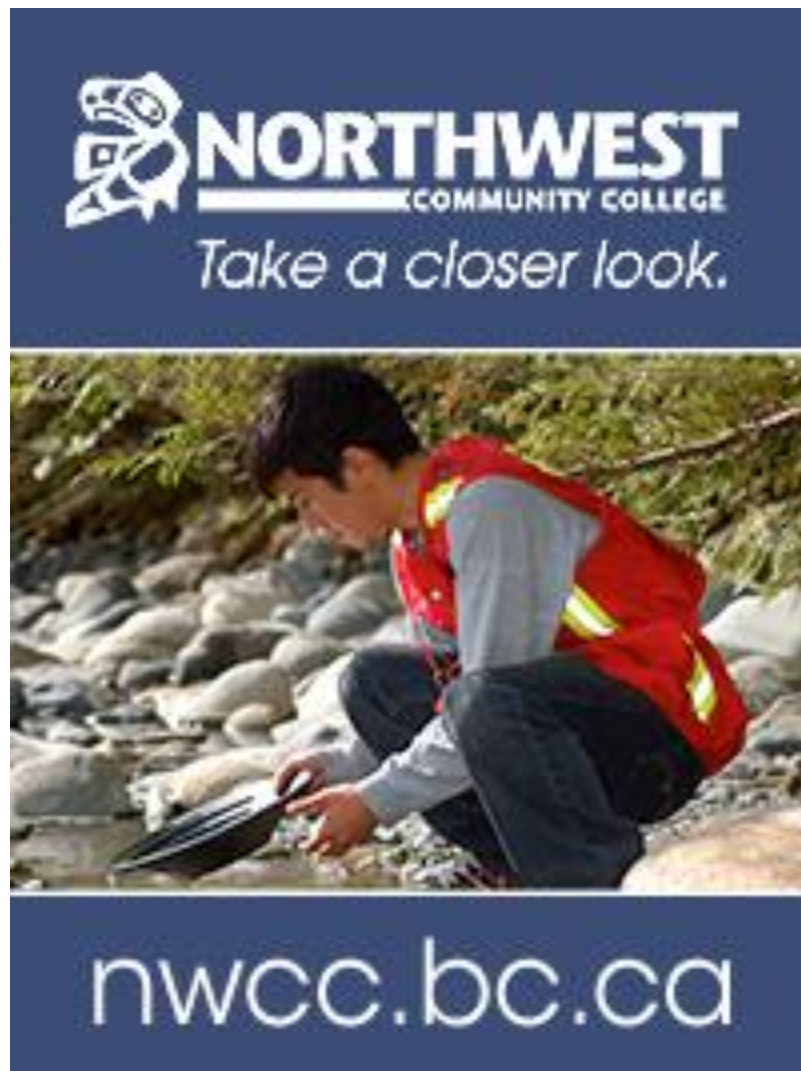

- Trades
 - Welding
 - Heavy Duty Mechanic
 - Millwright/Industrial Mechanic
 - Electrical
 - Carpentry
 - Heavy Equipment Operator
- Business Administration and Technology

- Partnership with PDAC
e3 Plus Framework:
 - Excellence in Health & Safety
 - Excellence in Social Responsibility
 - Excellence in Environmental Stewardship

facebook

- 1001 Members
- Student Alumni
- Industry Connections
- Photo Contests

Industry Liaison services are available to the industry for hiring our students.

Industry Liaison: Rob Maurer
250-877-1146 (cell)
rmaurer@nwcc.bc.ca

NWCC School of Exploration & Mining: Building Capacity for Stronger Communities DVD